

Strenghts

Experience in the field of infectious diseases, oncology and immunology
Lecturer at TU Munich and more than 90 publications
Proven expertise according § 75 German Medicines Law

Professional Summary

Our consultant has more than 20 years professional experience within the field of pharmaceutical industry and biological/medical research. His main focus is in the area of scientific affairs, where he manages preclinical/clinical projects and scientific advice. At P.SS.T he is also involved in project management of a whole market access process. Working for P.SS.T he takes care of our clients' needs and completes his work with a responsible handling. By his long career ship he provides for P.SS.T his excellent experience and his established network.

In earlier stages of his career he has worked for several pharmaceutical companies in leading positions in the field of biotechnology and diagnostics. There he was involved in medical science management and cooperated with a lot of clinics and companies. He also gained deep experience at well-known research institutes, where he was responsible for several infection biology projects.

In 1989 he received his PhD degree (1,0) at the Institute of Microbiology after his study of Biology at the University of Wuerzburg. He attended various advanced trainings in GCP guidelines and cGMP regulations as well as the introduction of clinical trials incl. ICH guidelines. In 2014/2015 he completed an advanced training in the field of strategic and quality management.

Languages

German	mother tongue
English	proficient
French	advanced